

Tax Preparation Checklist

Before you begin your tax filing, you may want to review the following checklist. Highlight the areas that apply to you, and make sure you have that information available. Better yet, attach the list to a folder of your tax documents, and check items off as you add them to the folder. You may need other documents or information, depending on your situation.

Information about adjustments, deductions and credits

The government offers a number of deductions and credits to help lower the tax burden on individuals, which may mean more money in your pocket. You'll need the following documentation to make sure you get all the deductions and credits you deserve.

Adjustments to income:

- Alimony paid for divorce settlements executed prior to 2019
- Form 1098-E for student loan interest paid (or loan statements for student loans)
- For teachers: bank/credit/debit card statements or receipts for expenses paid for classroom supplies and other teacher expenses
- Records of IRA and other retirement account contributions and rollovers made during the year including those reported on 5498 forms
- Keogh, SEP, SIMPLE, and other self-employed pension plan contributions
- Self-employed health insurance payment records
- Records of moving expenses (for military and possibly for state tax deductions)

Itemized deductions:

- Escrow closing statement from mortgage refinancing
- Investment interest expenses
- Charitable donations: cash amounts, official charity receipts, canceled checks; value of donated property; miles driven, and out-of-pocket expenses
- Medical and dental expenses including medical, Medicare and long term care insurance premiums, and medical supplies and travel costs
- Casualty and theft losses: amount of damage, insurance reimbursements
- Records/amounts of miscellaneous tax deductions: union dues; unreimbursed employee expenses including uniforms, supplies, seminars, continuing education, publications, travel, business use of home (possibly for state tax deduction)
- State and local taxes you've paid including property, sales and income tax and vehicle license fees based on the value of your vehicle

Tax credits:

- Childcare costs including provider's name, address, tax ID, and amount paid
- Education costs including Form 1098-T, education expenses including books and school supplies
- Adoption costs including SSN of the child; records of legal, medical and transportation costs
- Clean vehicle purchase information
- Clean energy purchase information including for solar electricity generation, solar water heaters, wind turbines, heat pumps, battery storage, and fuel cells
- Health insurance information for coverage purchased through Affordable Care Act marketplace (Form 1095-A)

Other information:

- Estimated tax payments made during the year including date and amount
- Prior-year refund applied to current year and/or any amount paid with an extension of time to file
- Foreign bank account information: location, name of bank, account number, peak value of account during the year

This checklist is intended for general educational purposes and to provide helpful tips for those getting ready to prepare their taxes. It should not be viewed as personalized tax investment, legal, or other business and professional advice. Before taking any action, you should always seek the assistance of a professional who knows your situation for advice on your taxes, investments, the law or any other business and professional matters that affect you and/or your business.
